President's report:

It has been established that the PTA is in the possession of several large dry erase mats in the closet. The PTA will establish how many mats are present and decide how to distribute them.

6th grade bowling party is scheduled for Friday, February 13. The students are off from school on that day. The cost is $11

The PTA is selling backpacks to help parents with trouble locating the appropriate types. We are in the process of locating other vendors to offer multiple choices. The newsletter will periodically include websites offering clear backpacks as another option.

Suggestions were tossed around for the upcoming movie night.
