President's report:

It was determined the next hoagie day will be on March 6, 2009, the next available half day. It is a teacher in-service day, with the kids having an early dismissal. A flyer advertising the day will go out to the student body on or about February 17th.

6th grade bowling party is scheduled for Friday, February 13. The students are off from school on that day. More information to follow

The PTA is hosting a movie night on January 23rd. The movie is Space Chimps. Information is to follow in the upcoming weeks.

The teachers end of the year luncheonette is scheduled for Monday, June 16th. Members are organizing themselves to prepare ahead of time for this end of the year celebration.

Teacher's Report:

No new business.

Committee Reports:

Dances:

5th to 7th grade dance is scheduled for February 20th. The last dance was a huge success and we are looking forward to a repeat performance. Chaperones are needed

Bylaws: A concern was renewed about the number of people required for a quorum. It has been determined the number is 9.

Health and Welfare A new incentive contest for Box Tops will run from now to mid February. The gender with the most collection sheets will receive a free dress down day to be determined at a later date.

Hospitality and Sunshine: no new business

Membership: no new business

Programs: upcoming programs including the following:
